

Corrections to First Aid Q&A for the USMLE Step 2

The following is the official up-to-date list of errata for the first edition of First Aid Q&A for the USMLE Step 2 CK. This list does not include suggestions/additions submitted and accepted for the next edition of the text.

The First Aid/USMLE Rx team
6/30//2008

1. Page 7
 - a. Question 13: The patient's sodium level should be 134 mEq/L, rather than 34 mEq/L.
 - b. Question 14: The patient's glucose level should be 133 mg/dL, rather than 33 mg/dL.
2. Page 17
 - a. Question 50: The question should read, "What is the reasoning behind avoiding nonselective β -blockers in this patient?"
3. Page 41
 - a. Question 50: The third sentence should start, "Nonselective β -adrenergic blockade..."
4. Page 139
 - a. Question 36: The newborn is a boy, not a girl.
5. Page 169
 - a. Question 14: The third sentence should refer to T (not B) lymphocytes.
6. Page 179
 - a. Question 51, the bleeding time should be 4 minutes, not 4 seconds.
7. Page 187
 - a. Question 14: CTCL involves T (rather than B) lymphocytes.
8. Page 216
 - a. Question 24: The next-to-last sentence should be deleted; image was deleted in press so no "physical examination findings are shown below."
9. Page 236
 - a. Answer 24: The correct explanation should not refer to an image.
10. Page 271
 - a. Answer 10: The correct explanation should not refer to an image.
11. Page 301
 - a. Answer 9: The last sentence should read, "... but the majority of cases of dementia are not reversible."
12. Page 486
 - a. Answers 45 and 46: The correct answers should be switched, K is correct for answer 45 and D is correct for answer 46.